IMPORTANT NOTICES

Statutory Notices

Your duty of disclosure:

Before you enter into this contract, you have a duty under Insurances Contracts Act 1984, to disclose every matter that you know or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept insurance and if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of facts or information:

- that diminish the risk
- that are common knowledge
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business ought to know
- if we waiver your duty in respect of those facts or information.

Non-Disclosure:

If you fail to comply with this duty we may be entitled to reduce our liability in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding this contract from the beginning.

Privacy:

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide us to quote on and insure your risks. We only provide personal information to our underwriters and reinsurers (and their representatives) and those we appoint to assist us with claims under your policy. We will not trade, rent or sell your information.

If you do not provide us with full information, we cannot properly quote for insurance and we cannot insure you. You can check the personal information we hold about you at any time.

If you provide us with personal information about anyone else, we rely on you to have told them that you will provide their information to us, to whom we may provide it, the purposes for which we will use it and that they can access it. If the information is sensitive, we rely on you have obtained their consent on these matters.

OTHER INSURANCE CONSIDERATIONS:

Most Home insurance policies limit the period of unoccupancy of the home to 60 days unless the insurer agrees, in writing, to a longer period.

The Travel Insurance has a "per item" limit on items of baggage which may be insufficient for valuables (e.g. jewellery). Cover for higher value items may be available under a Home Contents insurance policy.

Other policies may be affected by travel (e.g. policies falling due during your absence).
